THE BRIBERY CHARGES.

Not only Jake L. Hamon, but J. F. McMurray was named as a would-be briber in the investigation of the $30,000, 000 Oklahoma Indian land deal before the special congressional committee at Muskogee, Okla., on Saturday. McMurray is the holder of the contracts with the Choctaw and Chickasaw Indians, to promote what in Congress Senator Thomas P. Gore charged he was offered a bribe.

D. C. McCurtain, a Choctaw Indian and a delegate to Washington for his tribe, charged that McMurray, in 1906 offered him a bribe of $25,000 to withdraw opposition to the old tribal McCurtain contracts, which subsequently were disapproved by President Roosevelt.

Green McCurtain, chief of the 18,000 Choctaws and a venerable Indian of 62 years with gray hair and brown plump cheeks, then took the stand and told the committee that one George W. Scott, whom he believed acted in the interest of McMurray, had offered him one-fourth of the "profits" to be realized from the land deal, provided he induced the tribe to withdraw all opposition to the deal. This offer referred to new contracts held by McMurray, which are the cause of the present investigation.

The amount of the bribe mentioned by D. C. McCurtain, who is a son of the chief, is the same as that which Senator Gore alleges was offered him on May 6 last by Jake Hamon to put through the pending contracts, which, according to Senator Gore, would result in the selling of 450,000 acres of coal, asphalt and timber lands, owned by the Indians, to a New York syndicate on a basis that would give McMurray and his associates an "attorney's fee" of 10 per cent, or $3,000,000.

Creighton and Richard Gibson.

EXPLOSION AND FIRE.

Fire, following an explosion of mysterious origin, broke out simultaneously at 6 o'clock yesterday evening in the Cambria Hotel, one of the most famous in southwest Virginia, about a mile from Christiansburg, and in the adjoining building, the residence of C. A. Campbell.

Before it could be gotten under control it had practically destroyed the hotel, the Campbell residence, a store owned by Harvey E. Akers, and a barber shop, owned by E. S. Tate. The Cambria Hotel building, the Scurce wholesale grocery building and the stores of E. A. Myers and Charles Walthall, were badly damaged. The total loss will reach $10,000. The insurance amounts to $4,000.

A. C. Barnes, manager of the hotel, was desperately ill with typhoid fever on the third floor of the building, and was barely rescued when the flames had cut off all escape. His condition is critical.

The hotel which was a three-story frame structure was almost filled with guests but all escaped without injury. The fire burned fiercely until 9:30 o'clock.

TAR AND FEATHER ACTORS.

Angry because itinerant vaudeville actors used questionable language at a show given in the Brownlee schoolhouse, at Wylandville, Pa., Friday night, a band of young farmers tarred and feathered six of the actors, ducked them in a creek and later drove them from the village.

The vaudeville troupe was billed for two nights, the affair being advertised as a "clean performance with four big acts." The schoolhouse was jammed. An attempt by one of the actors to produce a laugh by an obscene joke drew a protest from one of the young farmers. The protest went unheeded.

A majority of the farmers led their sweethearts from the building. Later every young man in the neighborhood reappeared with buckets of tar and some feathers.
They coated the six offending actors, not sparing the two women of the troupe. Following the tarring all six were dumped into a creek and then told to hasten out of the village. They walked eight miles to Washington, Pa., after midnight, but were told there to keep moving.

NEGROES ORDERED TO MOVE.

Serious trouble in the Virginia avenue section of Newport News may occur unless colored people who have of late been moving into that neighborhood, formerly an exclusive white residential section, heed warnings that have been given them to depart. Yesterday morning the half dozen or more dwellings occupied by the negroes were found almost covered with placards printed in red and reading:

"Negro, it is time to move. If you can't move today, you had better move tomorrow."
"WHITE CITIZENS."

The posting of these placards, presumably by white citizens living in the vicinity, follows the refusal of the negroes to consider a request to get out of the neighborhood made by a committee of white men several days ago.

KILLED FOUR MEN.

The jury in the case of the state versus James B. Allison, charged with the murder of Floyd McGhee on July 5, returned a verdict of murder in the first degree at Ashville, N. C., Saturday night, after being out only 40 minutes. The accused will be sentenced to death by Judge Council today.

The crime for which Allison was convicted was a most revolting one. According to the evidence at the trial Allison crept on his victim without warning, shooting him in the back four times. After McGhee fell, Allison seized a hammer and crushed out McGhee's brains with repeated blows. The killing is alleged to have been brought about by McGhee's attentions to a woman, Allison, who is 40 years old, his killed four men in the last twelve years. He has heretofore escaped punishment by pleading self-defense.

WILL NOT MARRY HIS SISTER.

The Crown Prince of Siam is adding gray hairs to the head of his royal father, King Chulalongkorn, and has set the country by the ears generally by defying the traditions of a long ancestral line in refusing to marry his sister.

According to Rev. William C. Dodd, a Presbyterian missionary, who recently arrived at San Francisco, all Siam is agog over the prince's announcement. From time immemorial, the missionary says, it has been the Siamese custom for the crown prince to wed his sister, or if he has none, then a half sister, the daughter of one of his father's numerous wives. The present crown prince has asserted his independence by publicly declaring that he intends to have but one wife, and that one of his own choosing.

A FALL OF A METEOR.

Accompanied by a noise as loud as thunder, a large meteor fell in the neighborhood of Council Bluffs, Iowa, yesterday afternoon, shaking the city and causing intense excitement. Searching parties were attempting all the afternoon to locate the point where the meteor fell. Hundreds of people heard the explosion and felt the shock, but because the sun was shining at the time very few saw the aerolite itself. The meteor, which is described as very large and traveling from northwest to southeast, passed high in the air and disappeared behind the hills.

Drs. Brinckerhoff and Curry, and M. T. Hallman, of Honolulu, have succeeded in isolating germs of leprosy, it was announced on Saturday. This means "it is said, the ultimate discovery of a cure for the disease. The doctors are attempting to make toxin from the bacilli. Experiments at the leper settlement soon will be made.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets gently stimulate the liver and bowels to expel poisonous matter, cleanse the system, cure constipation and sick headache. Sold by W. F. Creighton and Richard Gibson.

SUMMER PRICES ANTHRACITE COAL

Our 1910 summer prices on Anthracite Coal became effective Monday, May 1, 1910.
There has never been a time in the history of our business when we felt that we were able to give better values in Anthracite Coal than we can this season, as we have completed our arrangements to secure our entire supply from two or three of the very best collieries in the Anthracite region, and will have a coal which is uniform in quality, well prepared, and coal that will give far better results than the average.
It is our desire to give our trade the best values that can be had, and we earnestly solicit the orders of our friends and customers.
